JGC Corporation (“JGC” or the “Company”) is committed to conducting business in accordance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and the highest ethical standards. Anticorruption compliance with the law is a fundamental element of our operations. Accordingly, the Company prohibits improper or unethical payments to anyone, including government officials and private citizens, anywhere in the world. This commitment is codified in JGC’s compliance policies, which are attached.

All vendors and subcontractors retained by JGC are expected to conduct themselves with the highest standards of honesty, fairness and personal integrity. It is imperative that such vendors and subcontractors comply with all applicable laws, including Japan’s Unfair Competition Prevention Law and other anti-bribery laws (collectively, the “Applicable Anticorruption Laws”).

The Company has requested that you complete a questionnaire to assist JGC in reviewing and achieving compliance with all Applicable Anticorruption Laws. The Company has tailored the questionnaire to seek only information that is relevant to the Company’s compliance efforts.

The Company may conduct a legal analysis of the information supplied in the questionnaire to determine whether a breach of Applicable Anticorruption Laws could occur as a result of the contemplated relationship ties with the vendor or subcontractor. The Company may also use the information to address and resolve any compliance issues that are identified through this process. Additionally, the Company may use the information transmitted to confirm the accuracy of the questionnaire responses. The information collected may be transmitted to Company employees, the Company’s external legal counsel or regulatory authorities. The Company will store and retain this information in accordance with Company policies and procedures. Completion of the questionnaire is voluntary, however, your failure to complete the questionnaire may preclude the Company from doing business with you.

All vendors and subcontractors retained by JGC are prohibited from offering, directly or indirectly, any illegal bribe, kickback or other improper or illegal payment to any person on behalf of a JGC Group Company. Designated vendors and subcontractors are also required to comply with JGC’s Anticorruption Policy.

Please review these policies and ensure that all members of your company are complying with these policies when operating on behalf of JGC. If you have any questions or concerns about the above, please consult with your relevant Company contact.
